Gosh, doesn't time fly when you are here in school having fun learning? It is already the end of our second week and school life in our individual bubbles is certainly fun. Let's find out what everybody has been up to.

In Miss Bradley's bubbles, they have been looking at sunflowers and they have even planted some sunflower seeds of their own - to see who can grow the tallest flower! The children also wanted to look at the life cycle of a sunflower and sequenced some pictures showing this - I can't wait to see them.

In Miss Brumwell's bubbles, they have been learning about Vincent Van Gogh - a Dutch painter whose Sunflower painting made him famous. The children have recreated their own sunflower painting using bright colours - they are fantastic! All the children really loved the sunflowers and it inspired them to plant their own and write a set of instructions on how to do so.

In Mrs Robertson's bubbles, the children have continued with their pirate theme. They have been writing messages in bottles and short pirate stories as well as making their very own treasure maps and giving directions for the pirates to find the treasure - Oh Rrrr! This then inspired them to make their own shelter, on a desert island, with waterproof materials for the roof to keep dry.

In Miss Richardson's bubbles, the children have been learning all about bees - how buzzy! They have learnt how bees make honey and this inspired them to go on a nature walk exploring Jenny's Woods (and they have even created their own piece of writing to accompany what they learnt).

In Mr Eastwood's and Miss Purdy's bubbles, they have been learning all about the country of Mexico. As a class, they created their own Mexican menus; authentic sugar skulls and looked at the 'Day of the Dead' festival. Wow! How interesting and exciting.

In the Year 6 bubbles, we have been reading Clockwork by Philip Pullman - a story about a tormented apprentice clock-maker, a deadly mechanical knight in armour - and the sinister Dr Kalmenius - who some may say is an evil wizard!

They have been writing their own character descriptions and letters to various characters pleading for them to reconsider what they are about to carry out...

Finally, we would like to say a big, "Hello," to all the children working from home. All the teachers have provided you with learning online and there are various activity web-links on our school website to access, so make sure you take every opportunity to do so and please keep in touch; it is lovely to hear and see all the wonderful home learning you are doing with your parents/carers so keep it up!

Thanks Ms Woodward
