

Home Challenge

In Reception, we have been reading about the story of Zog and The Flying Doctors by Julia Donaldson in Literacy. The pupils have previously learnt about different jobs in the healthcare sector such as receptionists, porters, chefs, physiotherapists, opticians, dentists, radiographers.

Activity: Please support your child to write about one of the job roles. Ask them to think about what the role entails and where the occupation would usually be based such as in a hospital. Can they draw a picture of a person carrying out the job. What equipment might they use? Ask them to think about how they help people.

Please return all completed homework
